

The Federal Reserve has issued an update to the Cash Services Manual of Procedures (CSMOP) effective March 1, 2019. Going forward, each currency band sent to the Fed must be stamped with the following minimum information:

- 1) Your Institution name
- 2) ABA routing number
- 3) The four-digit endpoint number (branch number) of the depositing office. A band without an office identification is deemed to be from the institution's head office.
- 4) Dollar amount of Currency in the Strap
- 5) Initials or names of the persons who verified the Strap must be clearly visible on the Band; and
- 6) Date of verification

The imprint must use dark (black) ink to ensure high-quality images.
